Hi Everyone!

I hope you all had a terrific Memorial Day Weekend!

As a reminder, the August session (Session 7) will only have private lessons that will consist of two, one-week sessions. When you sign up for a Monday, August 5th time slot, you will be signing up for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of that week at that time (with the exceptions of evening times as evening times will only be held on Monday and Wednesday nights). And when you sign up for Monday, August 12th time slots, you'll be signing up for Monday-Friday of that week at that time (again, with the exceptions of the evening times which will be held only on Monday and Wednesday).

Stay safe and swim lots this summer!

Thank-you and keep swimming,
Jamie
