

Langner's Lessons Update

9.20.22

Hi Everyone,

It's been great seeing you all back at the pool! I just have a few updates.

The Signs By Tomorrow Level 1 Scholarship forms are due at noon on Friday, September 23, 2023.

This coming Monday, September 26 is when group lesson registration for October will open. Just a friendly reminder that I'll be posting the Signup Genius link on my website early in the morning and will not be sending out an additional email with the link.

The Tentative January and February schedules have been posted and are attached. I will still be attending my son's CFHS swim meets which limits my instruction time.

Please check out my website at www.langnerslessons.com. You should be able to find all of my information on the site - including the links to Signup Genius.

See you at the pool,
Jamie
